

The Foundation of Iranians of Connecticut, inc. celebrated the Iranian Winter Solstice “Yalda” once again this year on Saturday, December 15, 2012.

DJ Atash entertained the attending 224 guests of the evening at the West Haven Italian American Club. Shiraz restaurant had been contracted to cater the food that evening and served the guests with Persian rice and kebab (chicken/beef) which was delicious and fresh. Following are the expenses and income amounts for this celebration for your review:

West Haven Italian American Club	$ 1000.00
Food/dessert	$ 4620.00
Entertainment	$ 650.00
Service	$ 750.00
Miscellaneous	$ 827.16
Tickets sold	$ 9450.00
Net income/loss	$ 1602.84

We would like to encourage our members and friends to attend these functions as they help our organization maintain our programs throughout the year.
